Connecticut

Core Services: The Office of Early Childhood (OEC) is the lead agency for Community-Based Child Abuse Prevention (CBCAP). Within OEC there are a number of prevention initiatives with the largest being the Connecticut Home Visiting System, a braided funding approach using state and federal funding to provide home visiting services to families across the state of Connecticut. In addition, through home visiting, OEC has used CBCAP funding to focus on outreach activities to special populations that include working with parents who are incarcerated and providing the following activities: parenting classes; childbirth preparation classes; professional development for correctional staff on trauma; family friendly visitation rooms, and offering home visiting services to the children of incarcerated parents and their caregivers. OEC has expanded its statewide Mind over Mood- In Home Cognitive Behavioral Therapy to mothers with perinatal mood disorders. OEC also has a homeless diversion program, a statewide coordinated process to keep families with young children out of homeless shelters. OEC partners closely with both Prevent Child Abuse CT and the Department of Children and Families on a variety of prevention projects that include sponsoring Community Innovation Grants and a DCF/Head Start/Home Visiting Collaborative Statewide Quarterly Meetings and Child Abuse Prevention Month activities. There is one, statewide telephone number that ensures children and their families have access to a system of early identification, prevention and intervention services and other important resources for families. OEC continues to provide Shaken Baby Syndrome prevention training; Family Development Training and Credentialing Program- professional development using Empowerment Skills for Family Workers and Empowerment Skills for Leaders curriculums.
