

National Parent Leadership Month SM

Celebrating the Importance and Contributions of Parent Leaders

What is National Parent Leadership Month?

National Parent Leadership Month (NPLM) was initiated by Parents Anonymous® and highlights the many opportunities available for parents, professionals, policy makers and other community stakeholders to engage in partnerships with the goal of building and supporting strong and safe families.

Who is a Parent Leader?

Parent leaders contribute to the success of their family, the community, local programs, and state CBCAP efforts in many ways. These parents are:

- The person who facilitates
- The person who reads to their child
- The one who doesn't mind including other children along with their own when going to playground or field trips
- The one who advocates for their child
- The one who makes coffee or cleans up at parent meetings
- The one who knows community resources for families
- The one to volunteers no matter how big or small the job
- The one who talks to the community leaders
- The person who is always there
- The person who is upbeat, positive and welcoming
